

OFER COHEN

Ofer Cohen was born into a family known in Cabala and mysticism for decades. At the age of 16, he discovered his abilities to predict events without any tools such as astro-charts or tarot cards, and realised that he was accurately face-reading people. Ofer's grandfather would often guide him through his dreams and does so until today.

At the age of 22, immediately after his marriage to a French woman, Ofer started practising astrology and palmistry. By the time he was 27, he was an expert in palmistry, Western astrology and medical herbs. Ofer is known for reading the astro-chart and tarot cards in a completely different way than the common astrologers and psychics of the West.

In the late 1990s, he hosted several radio and television programmes and made accurate predictions about famous footballers and celebrities that came true. Such accurate predictions put Ofer in a league above the rest of psychics and healers around the world.

In the mid-90s, Ofer studied Buddhism and tantric Vedas. It was in 1999 that he left Israel for further studies in India, and decided to settle in the city of Mumbai in 2003. His home is always filled with people coming to seek his tarot reading, help and guidance.

Ofer is the astrologer, tarot reader and guest columnist of HELLO! India, and is currently involved in the production of two spiritual films which are dedicated to the mission of awakening and enlightening people all over the world.

LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

2012 is an important year for your love life. This would be a good year to propose marriage to someone you have been dating for a while. Be aware that reconnecting with past flames could have a negative impact on your personal life this year. You can heal a problematic marriage if you are determined to get closer again to your spouse and stay away from temptations. Living away from your spouse or being involved in a secret love affair is not recommended this year as it could lead to separation.

CATHERINE, DUCHESS OF CAMBRIDGE

Date of birth: 9 JANUARY, 1982

Intelligent, independent, sensitive yet strong, Catherine is a woman that Prince William can be very proud of. With her serious approach to life and her sincere desire to help everyone, it is expected that she will continue her social activity. Saturn in Libra raises a conflict between her family's necessities and her professional life. But these challenges and those of the previous years will only serve to make her stronger.

Aquarius

21 January - 19 February

2012 will be a good year for your career and finances. Travelling to far-off places will help improve your income and career prospects. Your personal life will need your full attention, as there might be a few unexpected surprises or judgment mistakes this year, which might cause disappointments.

CAREER AND FINANCE

The effort you put in last year will reap rewards this year. You will be successful in buying and selling a property, however moving to a new house will be very costly. A promotion in your current job or achieving a better title in a new company will help you improve your income. Working with people from abroad will be very beneficial this year, yet there is a great danger of being manipulated by people who may try to take advantage of your good heart. A business or work dispute which started last year will be resolved in your favour, although you might need to compromise. Your brilliant business ideas can easily materialise this year, yet you must be selective when choosing your partners. Be very suspicious of those asking you for a loan, as there are high chances of losing your money.

LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

Marriage is on the cards for many Aquarians this year. You are ready to make compromises in order to bring stability and peace into your personal relationships. Unstable relationships might go through a sudden separation, which may affect you emotionally. You will realise that there is a wide gap between your expectations and the reality of this relationship. It is not recommended that you commit to marriage with someone who you started dating prior to 2009. This is because relationship problems that you have experienced in the past are predicted to resurface in the coming years.

PRINCESS CHARLENE OF MONACO

Date of birth: 25 JANUARY, 1978

With sincere communication and endeavouring to keep their personal lives out of the public eye, they will get through this difficult period.

Pisces

20 February - 20 March

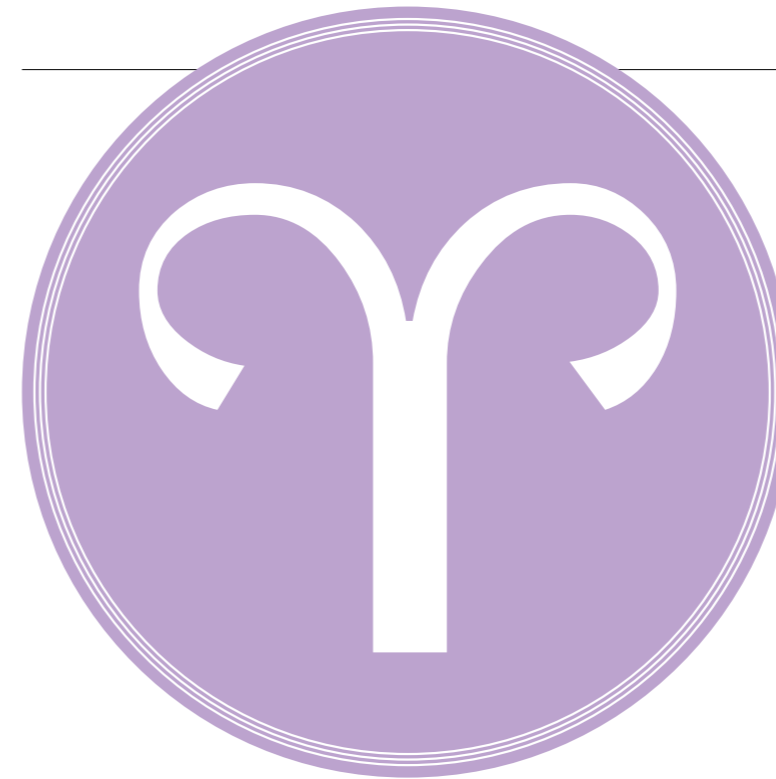

The coming year will deal with new work responsibilities. Make sure that you carefully calculate your business budget, otherwise there might be a problem with cash flow. Feeling emotionally restless will add confusion to your current relationship. Expect new beginnings and sudden separation during the year.

CAREER AND FINANCE

This year, you will be more focused on your career. The first half of 2012 will be very intensive on the work front. You will have to adjust to a new work schedule and find solutions to work challenges, which you have never experienced before. Many Pisceans are about to take risks in business. Although you are going to be at your best at work this year, it is highly recommended that you consult professionals before taking any big decisions. Manage your budget carefully, especially if you are trying to work out the cost of a new project. Property transactions and trade will only bring profit if you can control your expenses while being selective when choosing your business partners. Do not let the problems in your family or personal life upset your career trajectory. This time you will have to insist on doing things your way, otherwise you will end up frustrated.

LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

It's a good period for newly-married couples and for those who recently started dating someone new. Finding a new love this year could help you leave behind a relationship, which you need to end. Unfortunately your fear of hurting others might prevent you from making a final decision to end the relationship. June, July and August will be a difficult period for those with marriage problems. Moving to another location would be a smart solution for those who wish to begin a new life chapter.

In 2012, your energy levels will suffer. However, you can avoid it by maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

CAREER AND FINANCE

Your career will continue to experience some changes, which will eventually go in your favour. The first half of 2012 will be financially challenging, especially for those planning to relocate to a new place for work or study. Both Jupiter and Mars are going to benefit you financially this year, yet there is a great danger of taking the wrong decisions related to a family property or trusting the wrong people during work negotiations. New offers of work will surprise you; be ready to respond quickly and change your lifestyle if needed. Some of you will think about a change of profession, others about immigrating to new lands. This is the time to launch a new company, start a new project or send your resumé to a new company, which will be quick to see your potential.

LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

Better communication, willingness to commit and a new love affair will be the highlights of this year. Whether it is friendship or marriage, try and address all the problems that may have cropped up in the past. An unstable relationship is likely to blossom into a long-lasting commitment. However, if you are a singleton who has experienced infidelity and insincerity in your previous relationships, then avoid reconciliation with that person and look for someone new to share your future with.

Changes that began last year will continue throughout 2012. You enter the New Year with more maturity and you are about to embark on a new chapter in life. Maybe it's time to relocate to a new house or do the things you've always wanted to do. Jupiter in Taurus will bring luck and success for those who are ready to leave the past behind. To stay healthy, you must avoid putting on weight and stay away from sugary food.

CAREER AND FINANCE

With Jupiter's presence in Taurus until June 2012, you will have all the support and luck you need to tackle daily activities. A surprising career offer might come along but you will have to react quickly if you want to take full advantage of it. If you recently got a new job, your performance and skills will impress your superiors and you will quickly become an important part of the team. You like to deal with work pressure slowly and carefully, however in this frantic year you will have to multitask as well as travel often if needed. Your close family will be supportive of your busy schedule. However, if you are a part of a family business there might be trouble ahead due to jealousy or competition. Relocating to a new house is a possibility but watch out for the high costs involved and problems regarding bank loans.

LOVE AND RELATIONSHIPS

If you are dealing with a complicated married life then shifting to a new house or a change of environment will greatly help to heal your relationship. If he can only avoid repeating his dad's past mistakes then his future with Catherine looks very promising.

It could be a sensitive period for health, especially for those suffering from chronic back pain and orthopaedic disorders.

Some of the most important goals this year are to change your work style and to be able to work as a part of a team. Projects, which suffered from delays, will now move forward yet it will take time before you begin to see an improvement in your cash flow. An optimistic outlook will help lay the foundation for a better financial future. It would be wise to be secretive about your future plans as there will be those who could take advantage of such information. If you are planning to part ways with your partner or a family business, then get ready to make a few compromises in order to break free. Hopefully your easygoing nature and natural tact will help make it an easy process.

If you are still unemployed, you are likely to get job opportunities, which will be in sync with your skills. The first half of 2012 will be financially difficult for students and for those who recently started a new business venture. Relationships with work colleagues will go through many ups and downs and you must do your best to avoid unnecessary conflicts.
